Sir,

PENSION - Compassionate gratuity - Application of Srimathi Indira Bai, widow of K.Lakshmana, late copyist S.S.M's court, Kasaragod - Grant of - Request -

Ref: 1.Application dated 26.5.54 from Srimathi Indira Bai widow of Lakshmana.
2.D.Dis. 6041/54.dated 13.8.54 N.Dis. 8239/54 dated 17.9.54 and L.Dis. 8799/54. dated 1.10.54 of the Tahsildar Kasaragod.

K.Lakshmana late copyist, Stationary Sub Magistrate's court, Kasaragod met with an unexpected death on 12.1.54. He was bitten by a reptile on 9.1.54, while he was returning from office and died of the snake bite on 12.1.54. The widow of the late copyist, Smt. Indira Bai has applied for the grant of compassionate gratuity under the rules. It is stated in her petition dated 26.5.54 that she had submitted a petition previously through the S.S.M.Kasaragod on 22.2.54 But it is reported that the application is not traceable.

2. The application was enquired into by the Tahsildar Kasaragod. The late copyist entered Government service as attender Taluk Office Kasaragod on 16.2.35 and was in the service till 7.3.35, when he was later appointed as copyist on 27.7.41, and his services were again terminated on 8.8.41 . On 10.8.44, he was again appointed as copyist Taluk Office Kasaragod and continued in the post till his death on 12.1.54. Though he had sustained two breaks in his services from 8.3.35 to 26.7.41 and from 9.8.41 to 9.8.44 he had a continuous service of 9 years 5 months and 2 days since his re-appointment on 10.8.44 He was confirmed as a copyist with effect from 27.8.49 in Puttur R.D.O's D.Dis. 4733/49.d/ 7.10.49.

3. The deceased copyist has left behind him, his wife and 4 children aged 12,8, 6 and 1 years respectively. The eldest son is now studying in the IIIrd Class while the second and the third girls

In the II class and in the I class respectively. The younge... is a male child of 1 year old. Enquiry shows that the petitioner and her children were entirely depending on the deceased and that there is none who renders pecuniary assistance to the applicant now. The only asset that the deceased has left is a landed property measuring 5.93 acres in extent with an assessment of Rs. 5.15.0. The market value of the property is estimated to be Rs. 889.8.0. As to the liabilities, it is reported that he had incured a debt of Rs. 1,224.8.8, of which there are documentary proof only to the extent of Rs. 905.3.6, while for the remaining amounts, the applicant could not produce any evidence. He had neither joined the G.P.fund nor taken out any policy in an Assurance Company and therefore no amount was due to the deceased on these accounts.

4. The average monthly remuneration drawn by the late copyist comes to Rs.27/- and the proportionate D.A. on this amount is Rs. 19/- p.m.

5. It is reported by the Tahsildar that the late copyist has not made any provision for the family except the meagre assets left behind him, with all the liabilities as stated in para 3 above. Though the Government servant did not put in the ten years service required under rule 7 '1) (b) of the M.C.S.rules 1932, in view of the hard pecuniary circumstances of the petitioner, I recommend, as a special case that the Government may be pleased to sanction an amount of Rs.250/- (Rupees two hundred and fifty only)as a compassionate gratuity to the applicant Srimathi Indira Bai widow of the deceased.

6. The past conduct and character of the deceased are reported to have been good. The compassionate gratuity sanctioned may be ordered to be paid from the Kasaragod Sub Treasury. The D.R. of the applicant and the Service Register of the deceased with the records of enquiry pages 1 56 are enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

8.11.54.

From

The Collector & District Magistrate of South Kanara, Mangalore.

Humble memorial dated 26-5-1954 of Mrs. Indira Bai, widow of K.Lakshmana, residing in Shiribagilu village, P.O. Vaipadi, Kasaragod taluk, S.Kanara Dt

The memorialist most respectfully sheweth:

That she is the widow of Sri K.Lakshmana who was last working as a copyist in the Kasaragod Stationary Sub.Magistrate's Office.

AG

2. That her late lamented husband who was working as a copyist under the Government since 1937 was bitten by some venomous reptile while he was returning home from office on the evening of 9th January 1954. In spite of the treatment given to him, he died on 10-1-1954 leaving the memorialist and her four children - 2 boys and 2 girls aged 12, 10, 3 and 1 years respectively - in a destitute condition.

3. That on account of the meagre earnings of her husband during his lifetime, the memorialist could keep the body and soul together of herself and her children with the greatest difficulty. As such she has not been able to save anything on which she could fall back upon now. The only asset worth the name her husband has left is a couple of acres of a hilly plot of land and even on this land a balance of debt of about Rs.40 is outstanding and is payable to the Government. As against this property he has left liabilities to the tune of a thousand rupees.

4. The memorialist humbly prays that the Kerala Government be pleased to consider her pitiable case sympathetically and grant her the following among other relief :-

(1) a gratuity taking into consideration the service of over 16 years put in by the deceased as copyist in the Revenue Department.

(2) Free [illegible] grant [illegible]

(3) the writing off of the debt of Rs. [illegible] from the assessed husband to the Government on the surety of the property.

5. In conclusion the memorialist further states that in case the relief sought for be granted by the Government, this memorialist, after due enquiry, may please be forwarded to the Government with such recommendations as deemed fit

6. The memorialist begs to state that she has submitted a memorial to the Collector through the S.D. Magistrate, Kasaragod as on 22-2-1954, and as no action seems to have taken in the matter, this memorial has been submitted again.
